

Best Places to Study on Campus

North Campus

Residence Halls

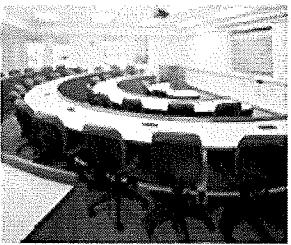

Residence Halls offer common areas/lounges ideal for studying including:

- 886 Brush Hill Road – Three; each located on the first, second and third floors.
- Lombard Hall – One lounge located on the garden level.
- Mayflower Hall – One lounge located on the first floor.
- North Campus Residence Hall (NCRH) – Three; each located on the first, second and third floors.
- North Hall – One lounge located on the garden level.
- Rose Hall – One lounge located on the first floor.
- Scholars Hall – Two; one located on the garden level and one on the first floor.
- State House – One lounge located on the first floor.

Academic Quad

- The Academic and Performance Center (AAPC) – The ground floor offers tables and chairs to offer students group or individual study. The second floor, between the AAPC and the Levin Library, has numerous couches and tables ideal for group and self-study.
- Hafer, AAPC and Science Building – Numerous classrooms, especially after 7:00pm, are available for use in the Academic Quad.
- The Levin Library – Offers tables for group studying on the first floor and silent study on the basement floor. The basement floor includes large tables as well as carrels for more private space.

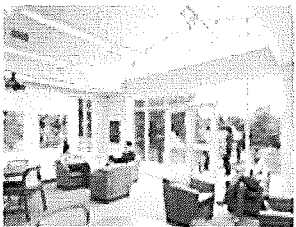

Mid-Campus

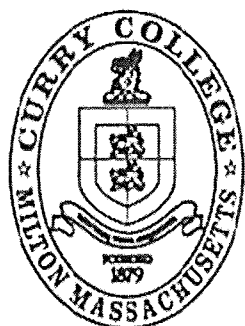

Residence Halls

- Bell Hall – Contains numerous multi-functional spaces as classrooms and study halls throughout the day and night.
- Brown House – One lounge located on the first floor.
- Green House – One lounge located on the first floor.

Student Center

- The Shelley Hoon Keith Quiet Study Lounge – Located on the second floor of the Student Center, it offers students a quiet place to work.

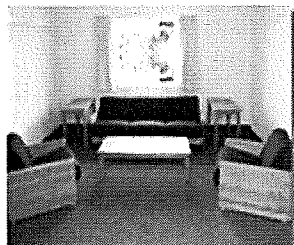

South Campus

Residence Halls

- Main House – One lounge located on the second floor.
- Milton Hall – One lounge located on the first floor.
- South Campus Residence Hall (SCRH) – One lounge located on the first floor and one quiet study lounge located on each of the first, second and third floors.
- The Suites – One lounge located on the first floor.
- White House – Two; one located on the garden level and one on the first floor.

Classrooms

- Kennedy Academic Building – Numerous classrooms, especially after 7:00pm, are available for use.