

What's new in the library catalog this fall...

The library catalog has gotten a facelift! It has a new look and feel, as well as some exciting new features:

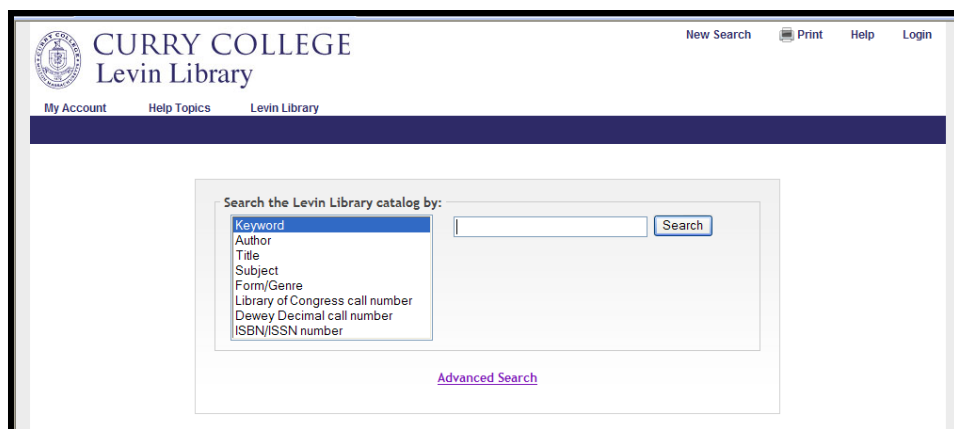

- You can now login to your library account using your MyCurry Portal login.
- You will be able to see what you have checked out, and renew items.
- You will be able to request items, including books that are not checked out.
- You can add items to "My Lists" for later reference.
- You can save preferred searches.
- You can set up email notification of new items on subjects of interest.

Check it out!

Explore the new catalog at <http://artemis.curry.edu>.

- To login: click on "login" in the upper right.
- Use your MyCurry Portal username and password.
