

Faculty Center for Curriculum Development & Innovation at Curry College

GRANTS NEWSLETTER

December 2011

Welcome to the first edition of a regular series of newsletters from the Faculty Center. This issue focuses on grants and fellowships. Future issues will feature the many other activities that take place at the Center

Travel Grant Opportunity

The Marion & Jasper Whiting Foundation invites applications from teachers at New England colleges and universities to fund travel abroad that will broaden their experience and improve the quality of their teaching.

Proposals must be submitted through the college. Deadline: January 20, 2012. If interested, contact the Grants Coordinator before winter break.

Looking for funding?

The door at the Grants Coordinator's office is always open. Help is available to:

- Locate opportunities for grants, fellowships, residencies & travel
- Navigate the College's internal grants paperwork
- Reformat your CV for grant applications
- Prepare a grant budget
- Write and submit a proposal

Interested in Fulbright?

The Fulbright program is the flagship international exchange program sponsored by the US Department of State, designed to increase understanding between people of the United States and other countries. Fulbright scholars are chosen for their academic merit and leadership potential. Scholars are provided with the opportunity to study, teach and conduct research abroad. The program operates in over 155 countries and awards approximately 7,500 grants annually. There are several Fulbright options with different deadlines. Opportunities for the Fulbright Core Program will be posted on the organization's website on February 1, 2012. Information on planning for a Fulbright application is posted on the Grants webpage: <https://my.curry.edu/web/faculty/grants>. If interested, contact the Grants Coordinator.

Do you know ?

We have a process set up to help you apply for grants & fellowships. For more information about the grants process at Curry, and about navigating the College's internal grants paperwork see the Faculty Portal at <https://my.curry.edu/web/faculty/grants>.

A couple of grants tips:

- Plan ahead!
- Have a grants-friendly version of your CV ready.
