View by User Role

April 30, 2019

System Owner: Pam Lindberg

All faculty, staff, students, parents, and alumni all have access to the myCurry portal. Each constituent group has been assigned a role (see below) which controls their access to varying parts of the portal. These roles control the tabs (across the top), subpages under a tab, icons within the Quicklaunch, and specific portlets/ varies by the role that has been assigned to them (portal roles listed below).

Below are credentials for test accounts can be used to view what each role has access to. Although you can see what this type of users sees, if you try to click on a link (ie. To run a CWIS process – mySchedule/AccountInvoice) it will not work.

Portal Role	Stage	Status in Banner	Associated Test Account	Test Account Password
