

1.1 STATEMENT OF NON-DISCRIMINATION

Curry College is committed to fostering a diverse and inclusive community that supports each community member's professional, academic or personal pursuits. The College's Unlawful Harassment, Discrimination, and Retaliation Policy reflects our commitment to these goals.

Curry College is committed to providing equal opportunity in employment and education programs to all employees, students, and applicants. No employee, student or applicant shall be discriminated against or harassed on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, age, ethnic or national origin or ancestry, physical or mental disability, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, veteran or military status, membership in the Uniformed Services, or any category protected by applicable state and federal laws.

Curry College is committed to making its programs and campus accessible to its visitors and compliant with all applicable non-discrimination laws.

Sexual harassment, including sexual violence, is a form of sex discrimination that is illegal under both federal and Massachusetts state law, including Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the Violence Against Women Act, Massachusetts General Laws chapter 151B, § 4, Massachusetts General Laws chapter 151C, § 2, and Massachusetts General Laws chapter 214, § 1C. C prohibited by law and this Policy is incompatible with the values and mission of Curry College and will not be tolerated.

The College's complete policy prohibiting Sexual and Gender-Based Discrimination and Harassment, including sexual violence and sexual misconduct, can be reviewed at Section 1.2 of this Employee Handbook. For further information, please contact the Human Resources Office, or contact the College's Title IX Coordinator.

A. PROHIBITION AGAINST UNLAWFUL DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT AND RETALIATION

The College fully supports the right of all persons to hold employment or receive education without suffering from acts of unlawful discrimination, harassment, or retaliation. As such, it is the policy of the College to maintain a work and academic environment that is free of harassment and of discriminatory actions based on an individual's legally protected characteristics, which can include but are not limited to race, religion, color, sex, age, ethnic or national origin or ancestry, physical or mental disability, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, veteran or military status, membership in the Uniformed Services, or any category protected by applicable state and federal laws.

Unlawful discrimination, harassment, and retaliation by officers, faculty, managers, supervisors, employees, students, vendors, clientele, and contractors will not be tolerated. Such conduct is illegal under federal and state laws and is strictly prohibited by the College.

B. DEFINITIONS

Discrimination is a legal term referring to an employment or academic decision that results in negative and/or different treatment of an individual based upon one or more of the individual's legally protected characteristics. Discriminatory conduct includes decisions in which one or more of the individual's legally protected characteristics were the sole factor or a contributing factor.

Harassment is a legal term describing when an individual is targeted with verbal, written, visual, or physical conduct based upon one or more of the individual's legally protected characteristics and that unreasonably interferes with the individual's work or academic performance, or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working, living or learning environment. Such acts may occur on or off campus, and during or after work hours.

Examples of Harassing or Discriminatory Conduct: Depending upon the circumstances and how they impact the workplace, educational programs, activities, or the academic environment, examples of discrimination or harassment in violation of this Policy may include, but are not limited to, following types of conduct:

- Making decisions about a person's employment, compensation, or education based upon or motivated by the person's protected characteristic(s);
- Verbal or physical abuse, offensive innuendo or derogatory words, epithets, or comments concerning, based on, or motivated by a person's protected characteristic(s);
- An open display of objects, pictures, or other media which create a hostile working/learning environment based on or motivated by a person's protected characteristic(s); or
- Failure to provide religious or disability-related accommodations when required by applicable law.

Sexual Harassment is a legal term describing discriminatory behavior where an individual is the recipient of unwelcome sexual advances or requests for sexual favors, or is otherwise subjected to conduct of a sexual nature whether verbal, non-verbal, graphic, physical, electronic or by any and all other means. Behavior can constitute sexual harassment when:

- Submission to or rejection of such sexual advances, conduct, or requests for sexually based favors is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment, education or participation in College programs or activities, or a basis for employment or educational decisions affecting the individual (quid pro quo); or
- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance, education, or participation in College programs or activities, or creating an intimidating, hostile, humiliating or sexually offensive work, learning, or living environment (hostile environment).

Sexual harassment may occur on or off campus, and during or after work hours.

Gender-Based Harassment is a legal term describing harassment based on sex or gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression, which may include acts of aggression, intimidation, or hostility, whether verbal or non-verbal, graphic, physical, or otherwise, even if the acts do not involve conduct of a sexual nature, when the conditions for hostile environment sexual harassment or quid pro quo sexual harassment are present, as defined above.

More information about Sexual or Gender-Based Harassment (including Sexual Misconduct) can be found in the College's Sexual and Gender-Based Harassment Policy at Section 1.2 of this Employee Handbook.

C. RESPONSIBILITIES FOR EVERY CURRY COLLEGE COMMUNITY MEMBER

The terms of this Policy apply to all members of the Curry College community, including students, faculty and staff members, visitors and vendors.

Accordingly, each member of the College community is personally responsible for ensuring that his or her conduct does not violate this Policy.

Each College community member is responsible for cooperating in any investigation of an alleged violation of this Policy if requested to do so by the individual(s) conducting the investigation.

Any individual who observes an incident that may constitute a violation of this Policy or who otherwise becomes aware of such an incident must immediately notify the Vice President of Human Resources, the Title IX Coordinator, or Deputy Title IX Coordinators listed herein.

All employees are required to participate in the College's workplace prevention harassment training program upon hire and every three years thereafter.

D. ACADEMIC FREEDOM

Nothing contained in this Policy shall be construed to limit the legitimate and reasonable academic responsibilities and academic freedoms of the College's professional educators. Conduct believed to be offensive, on its own, is not sufficient to constitute a violation of this Policy. The conduct must be sufficiently serious to interfere with an individual's ability to participate in employment or an educational program and activities from both a subjective and objective perspective.

E. REPORTING COMPLAINTS OF CONDUCT IN VIOLATION OF THIS POLICY

If an individual believes that he or she has been subject to conduct prohibited under this Policy, the most immediate goal is to stop the offensive conduct. Often, this can be accomplished by confronting whomever is engaging in the conduct, telling them what the individual finds offensive, and requesting that they stop. However, there is no requirement that the individual do so, and it may be that this approach is not practical or effective.

If an individual believes that he or she has been the subject of conduct prohibited under this policy, or if he or she is not sure if certain behavior violates this policy, he or she should contact their supervisor, the Human Resources Office, the Title IX Coordinator, Deputy Title IX Coordinators, or one of the Liaisons established by the College. That individual will then inform the Vice President of Human Resources or designee (in the case of an accused staff member) and/or the Provost and or designee (in the case of an accused faculty member) about the complaint.

F. PROCEDURES FOR ADDRESSING COMPLAINTS

The procedures for investigating and resolving reports of prohibited conduct committed by an employee, a visitor to an employee, or a vendor are detailed below.

The procedures for investigating and resolving reports of prohibited conduct committed by a Curry College student or a visitor on a student are detailed in the Student Handbook, located at www.curry.edu/handbook.

When a student reports that they have experienced conduct in violation of the College's Sexual and Gender-Based Harassment and Discrimination Policy, the student's individual rights and obligations are provided in the Student Handbook at www.curry.edu/handbook.

A Human Resources designee will meet with the complainant to discuss the conduct and events that are of concern, and to answer any questions the complainant may have about the procedure. The complainant is to bring the following information to this meeting: a description of the incident(s), the name of the person alleged to have violated this Policy, times, locations, specific words/actions, and the name of any witnesses to the incident(s). The meeting may also include a discussion of the possibility of an informal resolution with the assistance of Human Resources. The complainant is encouraged (but not required) to submit a written statement. The individual alleged to have violated this policy will not attend this meeting.

If an informal resolution is not achieved or is not appropriate, the Human Resources designee will meet with the individual alleged to have violated this Policy.

The Human Resources designee will determine what witnesses, if any, should be contacted. Witnesses will be interviewed outside the presence of the individual making the complaint and the person alleged to have violated this Policy.

Upon completion of the investigation, the Human Resources designee will: (1) prepare a finding of the facts, will make a determination as to whether the alleged conduct constitutes a violation of this Policy, and will notify the appropriate Senior Staff Member (Vice President of Human Resources for staff; Provost for faculty).

The College will endeavor to inform the individual making the complaint and the person alleged to have violated this Policy of the determination, in writing, within sixty (60) days of the commencement of the investigation. However, circumstances may result in the need for additional time. In such a case, the complainant and the respondent will be notified.

The determination may be appealed in writing by either party to the Vice President of Human Resources within 10 days of this notification. The complainant and the respondent may only appeal the outcome on one or both of the following grounds:

1. A procedural error occurred, which may change the outcome of the determination (i.e., the investigator did not interview a previously identified witness with exculpatory information);
or
2. The individual making the appeal has substantive and relevant new information that was not available at the time of investigation and that may change the outcome of the decision.

Disagreement with the College's findings or determination is not, by itself, a ground for appeal. The written appeal should contain a statement as to why the individual appealing disagrees with the determination.

If, for any reason, the Vice President of Human Resources, and/or the Provost requests to be excluded from the process related to this Policy, a designee will be determined by the President to take his/her place.

G. NO RETALIATION FOR FILING OR ASSISTING IN THE INVESTIGATION OF A COMPLAINT UNDER THIS POLICY

Retaliation against any individual for reporting in good faith acts of discrimination or harassment, or for assisting in an investigation of or providing information related to a report of discrimination or harassment, is strictly prohibited by federal and state laws and regulations and will not be tolerated. Retaliatory acts constitute a violation of the law and this Policy and may include, but are not limited to, intimidating, threatening, or taking adverse actions against an individual for attempting to or bringing forward a good faith complaint of discrimination or harassment, or for assisting in an investigation or providing information related to a report of discrimination or harassment. Engaging in retaliatory acts, including the continuation or recurrence of harassment or discrimination (directly or through a third party), is a violation of law and this Policy and will result in disciplinary action. The College's investigation of reported acts of retaliation shall proceed independent of the College's investigation of the related report(s) of discrimination or harassment.

Any suspected retaliation should be reported immediately to the Vice President of Human Resources (617-333-2193) or Associate Vice President of Student Affairs and Dean of Students (617-391-5240), or to the Title IX Coordinator (617-979-3516), as circumstances warrant.

H. NO FALSE COMPLAINTS OR BAD FAITH PARTICIPATION IN INVESTIGATIONS

A knowingly and intentionally false or frivolous complaint, determined by the College to have been made in bad faith and dishonesty in the context of an investigation, is a serious offense. A finding that this Policy has not been violated is not, in and of itself, an indication that a complaint is false or unfounded. The College reserves the right to impose appropriate disciplinary action on a student or an employee who knowingly and intentionally files a false or frivolous complaint, or who participates in bad faith in the investigation of a complaint filed pursuant to this Policy by knowingly and intentionally providing false and misleading information in the context of the investigation.

I. CORRECTIVE ACTION

In the event that the investigation concludes that a member of the Curry community has engaged in misconduct constituting discrimination, harassment, or retaliation in violation of this Policy, the College may take prompt corrective action to eliminate the misconduct and to put measures in place to prevent its recurrence and correct its effects, including, where appropriate, imposing discipline on the offender. Such disciplinary action may include but is not limited to the following: reprimand, change in work assignment, mandatory training or suspension, and/or immediate termination or end of contractual or business with the College.

In the case of a staff member, the Senior Staff Member and the Vice President of Human Resources will make a final determination regarding disciplinary action.

In the case of a faculty member found in violation of this policy, the Provost will make the final determination for any discipline in accordance with the current Collective Bargaining Agreement.

J. CONFIDENTIALITY

All actions taken to report, investigate and resolve complaints through the procedures of this policy shall be conducted with privacy and discretion, to the extent that it is possible without compromising the thoroughness and fairness of the investigation, and in accordance with applicable law. All persons involved are to treat the situation with respect. However, the College cannot make promises of confidentiality.

In order to conduct a thorough investigation, the Human Resources designee and the Title IX Coordinator (if participating) may discuss the report with witnesses and other individuals involved in or affected by the report, and with persons necessary to assist in the investigation or to implement appropriate corrective actions.

K. COLLEGE EMPLOYEES RESPONSIBLE FOR ADDRESSING COMPLAINTS OF VIOLATIONS OF THIS POLICY

The following individuals are designated as those individuals who are charged with addressing complaints of harassment and discrimination under this Policy, and may be contacted to initiate an investigation under the Policy:

Vice President of Human Resources:

Mirlen Mal
King Academic Administration Building, 55 Atherton St.
mirlen.mal@curry.edu

Jennifer.golojuchborden@curry.edu
617-391-5240

Staff and Faculty trained as Liaisons:

A number of staff and faculty across campus have been trained as Liaisons, serving as a resource to members of the College community. Liaisons are knowledgeable about College policies, procedures, resources and reporting obligations.

All Liaisons and Investigators are required to participate in appropriate training provided by the College. Employees who do not attend required training annually as requested will be taken off this resource list.

The College maintains lists of Liaisons and Investigators, which are updated periodically and made available on the College's Website and under the Employee tab/Human Resources link on the College's employee portal.

L. STATE AND FEDERAL AGENCIES

In addition to the above, if you believe you have been subjected to unlawful discrimination, harassment or retaliation, you may file a formal complaint with the government agencies set forth below. Using the College's complaint process does not prohibit you from filing a complaint with these agencies.

1. The United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC")

1.2 SEXUAL AND GENDER-BASED HARASSMENT AND DISCRIMINATION

I. Institutional Values and Statement of Non-Discrimination

Curry College is committed to providing equal opportunity in employment and education to all employees, students, and applicants. No employee, student or applicant shall be discriminated against or harassed on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, age, ethnic or national origin or ancestry, veteran status, physical or mental disability, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, veteran or military status, membership in Uniformed Services, or any category protected by applicable state and federal laws. Similarly, Curry College is committed to making its programs and campus accessible to its visitors and compliant with all applicable non-discrimination laws.

Sexual harassment, including sexual violence, is a form of sex discrimination that is illegal under both federal and Massachusetts state law, including Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the Violence Against Women Act, Massachusetts General Laws chapter 151B, § 4, Massachusetts General Laws chapter 151C, § 2, and Massachusetts General Laws chapter 214, § 1C. Furthermore, conduct prohibited under this policy is incompatible with the values and mission of Curry College and will not be tolerated.

II. Purpose and Scope

The College fully supports the right of all persons to hold employment and receive education without suffering unlawful discrimination, harassment or retaliation. The Sexual and Gender-Based Harassment and Discrimination Policy prohibits sexual and gender-based harassment and discrimination, including but not limited to, sexual misconduct, dating and interpersonal violence, and stalking. It also prohibits retaliation against an individual for making a report of conduct prohibited under this policy or for participation in an investigation of an alleged violation of this policy.

This policy applies to all College community members, including students (prospective and current), employees, visitors, vendors, and independent contractors, when the conduct:

1. occurs on College property, including online or electronic conduct through the use of College computing or network resources;
2. occurs in the context of an employment or education program or activity of the college;
- or
3. may have continuing adverse effects for the College community.

III. Prohibited Conduct under this Policy

A. Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation

Individuals may not be discriminated against in the terms and conditions of their employment or academic program or subject to harassment in the workplace or academic environment. Such conduct is illegal under federal and state laws and is strictly prohibited by the College. Unlawful discrimination, harassment, and retaliation by officers, faculty, managers, supervisors, employees, students, vendors, clientele, and contractors will not be tolerated.

This Policy focuses on Sexual or Gender-Based Harassment and Sexual Misconduct, which are further described in this Section.

B. Sexual or Gender-Based Harassment

Sexual Harassment: Sexual harassment and sexual violence are forms of sex discrimination that are illegal under both federal and Massachusetts state law. Under these laws, unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other conduct of a sexual nature whether verbal, non-verbal, graphic, physical, electronic, other otherwise constitute sexual harassment when:

- Submission to or rejection of such sexual advances, conduct, or requests for sexually based favors is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment, education or participation in College programs or activities, or a basis for employment or educational decisions affecting the individual (quid pro quo); or
- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance, education, or participation in College programs or activities, or creating an intimidating, hostile, humiliating or sexually offensive work, learning, or living environment (hostile environment).

Sexual harassment does not refer to behavior or occasional compliments of a socially acceptable nature. It refers to behavior that is not welcome and occurs in a variety of situations which share a common element: the inappropriate introduction of sexual activities or comments into the work or educational environment. It may occur on or off campus.

Sexual harassment often involves relationships of unequal power. Such situations may contain elements of coercion, such as when compliance with requests for sexual favors becomes a condition for granting privileges or favorable treatment on the job, or favorable treatment in the classroom. However, sexual harassment may also involve relationships among persons of equal authority or power, such as when repeated advances or demeaning verbal comments by a co-worker towards another co-worker have a harmful effect on a person's ability to perform his or her work. Sexual harassment can also involve behavior directed to and/or by students of the College, as well as employees and non-employees of the College.

Examples of sexual harassment may include, but are not limited to:

- Repeated offensive sexual flirtations, advances or propositions which are offensive;
- Verbal abuse or innuendo of a sexual nature which is continued or repeated;
- Physical contact such as touching, hugging, patting or pinching which is uninvited and unwanted by the other person;
- Offensive verbal comments of a sexual nature about an individual's body or sexual terms used to describe an individual;
- An open display of sexually suggestive objects or pictures if people find them offensive;
- Jokes or remarks of a sexual nature if people find them offensive;

- Unwanted prolonged and apparent staring or leering at a person;
- Obscene gestures or suggestive or insulting sounds made towards people who find them offensive;
- The demand for sexual favors accompanied by an implied or overt threat concerning an individual's employment status or educational status or promises of preferential treatment;
- Direct or implied requests for sexual favors in exchange for actual or promised favorable evaluations of course requirements, or favorable recommendations for position or benefits within or outside the College Community; and

In evaluating allegations of sexual harassment, the allegations are evaluated from both a subjective and objective perspective considering the totality of the circumstances.

Gender-Based Harassment includes harassment based on sex or gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression, which may include acts of aggression, intimidation, or hostility, whether verbal or non-verbal, graphic, physical, or otherwise, even if the acts do not involve conduct of a sexual nature, when the conditions for hostile environment harassment or quid pro quo harassment are present, as defined above.

C. Additional Forms of Sexual Misconduct

Sexual Misconduct

Curry College strictly prohibits sexual violence and all other forms of sexual misconduct. Sexual Misconduct includes any sexual contact or activity that occurs without the effective consent of any individual involved. It is the obligation of every person to obtain effective consent from the other person prior to sexual contact. Effective Consent is discussed in the section below.

Examples of sexual misconduct include, but are not limited to:

- Having or attempting to have sexual intercourse with another individual without consent or by force. Sexual intercourse includes anal, oral or vaginal penetration, however slight, with a body part or object.
- Intentional and unwelcome sexual touching, such as touching another's genitals, buttocks, or breasts without consent; or making someone touch you or themselves on these body parts.
- Having sexual contact with someone who is incapacitated (e.g. from alcohol or drug usage) such that their decision making ability is compromised so that they are unable to consent;

- Continuing sexual activity after either party has made it clear, either verbally or by conduct, that they do not wish to continue physical contact;

Effective Consent

Effective consent is informed, knowing and voluntary. The College defines effective consent as mutually understandable words or actions which indicate willingness to participate in mutually agreed-upon sexual activity. Effective Consent cannot be given by minors (in Massachusetts, those not yet sixteen (16) years of age). Effective Consent cannot be given by individuals who have a mental disability that results in their being unable to provide informed, knowing and voluntary consent. Effective Consent cannot be given by those who are unconscious, unaware or otherwise physically helpless. Consent obtained as a result of physical force, threats, intimidation (implied threats), duress or coercion is not Effective Consent. A person who knows or should reasonably have known that another person is incapacitated may not engage in sexual activity with that person, and there can be no Effective Consent in such situations. Effective Consent cannot be given by those who are incapacitated as a result of alcohol or other drug consumption (voluntary or involuntary). In addition, incapacitation may result from mental disability, sleep, or involuntary physical restraint, and there can be no Effective Consent in such situations.

Incapacitation

The College defines incapacitation as a state where an individual cannot make rational, reasonable decisions because the individual lacks the capacity to giving knowing consent, and/or as a state where one cannot make a rational, reasonable decision because the individual lacks the ability to understand the who, what, when, where, why or how of their sexual interaction. Consent to one form of sexual activity does not imply consent to other forms. Consent may be given for specific sexual activities and not for others. Consent at one time, including prior intimate partner or physical relationships does not imply future consent. Silence does not constitute consent and may indicate that something is wrong and the potential for sexual misconduct exists. The use of alcohol or other drugs does not constitute a defense for the failure of a person who initiates sexual activity to obtain effective consent.

Sexual Exploitation

Sexual Exploitation is purposely or knowingly taking sexual advantage of another person without consent. Examples of sexual exploitation include, but are not limited to:

- Obscene or indecent behavior, including exposure of one's sexual organs or the display of offensive sexual behavior;

- Deliberate observation of others (including letting others hide for observation) for sexual purposes without their consent;
- Taking, posting or disseminating pictures, video or audio of another person's intimate body parts, or another person engaged in sexual activity or in a state of undress without that person's consent;
- Possession or distribution of illegal pornography.
- Prostitution.
- Knowingly exposing another person to a sexually transmitted infection or virus without the other's knowledge.
- Providing someone with alcohol or drugs (such as "date rape" drugs), with or without that person's knowledge, for the purpose of making the person vulnerable to non-consensual sexual activity.

Relationship and Intimate Partner Violence

Physical violence, coercion, threats, intimidation, isolation, stalking, or other forms of emotional, sexual or economic abuse (i.e. controlling access to finances) is prohibited, including but not limited to those directed towards an intimate partner. Such violence can be a single act or a pattern of behavior. Intimate partner relationships are defined as short or long-term relationships (current or former) between persons intended to provide some emotional and/or romantic physical intimacy.

Domestic violence and dating violence may also constitute forms of intimate partner violence and are prohibited by the College. Dating violence includes violence by a person who has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the complaining party. The existence of such relationship is determined by its length, its type, and frequency of interaction of persons involved in the relationship. Domestic violence includes acts that may constitute violent misdemeanor and felony offenses committed by the victim's current or former spouse, cohabitant, or a person with whom he or she shares a child (as well as a person similarly protected under applicable domestic or family violence laws).

Stalking

Stalking is defined as a course of conduct directed at a specific person whether that person is a total stranger, acquaintance, current or former intimate partner, or anyone else that would cause a reasonable person to fear for her or his safety, for the safety of a third person, or to suffer substantial emotional distress. Such behavior is prohibited.

Stalking behaviors include, but are not limited to repeatedly pursuing, following, waiting, or appearing uninvited at or near a residence, workplace, classroom, or other places frequented by the person; surveillance or other types of observation, including but not limited to staring or watching an individual without their consent (which may be referred to as “peeping”); and repeated unwanted communication, including, but not limited to, face-to-face communication, telephone calls, voice messages, e-mails, text messages, social media, written letters, gifts, or any other communications that are not welcomed by the recipient of the communication.

Retaliation

Retaliation is any adverse action taken or threat of action made against a person for, in good faith, making a complaint of conduct prohibited by this Policy, participating in, or assisting with an investigation of such a complaint. Retaliation is prohibited by the College, and by Title IX and other federal and state laws, and will not be tolerated. Engaging in retaliatory acts, including the continuation or recurrence of harassment or discrimination (directly or through a third party), is a violation of this Policy and will result in disciplinary action.

Complicity

Complicity is any act taken with the purpose of aiding, facilitating, promoting or encouraging the commission of a violation of this policy by another person.

D. Amorous Relationships Between Faculty, Students, and Staff

Employees should always conduct themselves professionally in their dealings with coworkers and students and others. The College expects the employees involved to exercise discretion and maturity in the manner in which they relate to each other at work with coworkers and students. Personal/romantic relationships between employees of different levels of authority within the College may affect the morale of co-workers by creating actual or perceived favoritism. Therefore, neither party to a romantic relationship should participate in formal or informal supervision, review or evaluation of the other. The College may alter the work responsibilities of parties engaged in a romantic relationship in order to limit their professional contact with one another.

Romantic relationships between employees and students are strictly prohibited. For more information regarding amorous relationships, contact Human Resources at (617) 333-2263.

IV. Options for Reporting Prohibited Conduct

Individuals who have experienced sexual or gender-based harassment or discrimination, including sexual violence, are encouraged to report the misconduct to the College or to local law enforcement. These options are not mutually exclusive – you do not need to choose one option over the other. Internal reports and criminal reports can be made simultaneously or at different times. There is no time limit for filing a report with the College; however, individuals are encouraged to report misconduct as soon as possible in order to maximize the College’s ability to respond promptly and effectively.

The College encourages all individuals to seek assistance from a medical provider and/or law enforcement immediately after an incident of sexual violence. This is the best option to ensure preservation of evidence and to begin a timely investigation, outside of the College’s process.

A. Reporting to Law Enforcement

Conduct that violates this policy may also constitute a violation of law. For immediate safety assistance, an individual can dial 911 or contact Curry College Public Safety. The Department of Public Safety can assist in making a criminal report to local law enforcement. To report potential criminal conduct to local law enforcement, contact information is below.

Emergencies	911
Curry College Public Safety	(617) 333-2222 940 Brush Hill Road, Milton, MA 02186
Milton Police Department	(617) 698-3800 40 Highland Street, Milton, MA, 02186
Plymouth Police Department	(508) 830-4218 20 Long Pond Rd., Plymouth, MA 02360

B. Reporting to the College

The following individuals are trained and designated to receive and respond to allegations of violations of the policy:

Title IX Coordinator:
Rachel King
55 Atherton Street
Rachel.King@curry.edu
617-979-3516

Interim Dean of Students/Deputy Title IX Coordinator:

Jennifer Golojuch-Borden
1016 Brush Hill Road
Jennifer.golojuchborden@curry.edu
617-391-5240

Vice President of Human Resources:
Mirlen Mal
King Academic Administration Building, 55 Atherton St.
mirlen.mal@curry.edu
617-333-2193

Making a report of prohibited conduct under this policy involves telling an employee of the College (with the exception of those designated as “confidential,” referenced in Section V), also known as “responsible employees,” what occurred. While reported misconduct must be relayed to the Title IX Coordinator, individuals wishing to make a complaint can speak directly to one of the above Coordinators or any responsible employee. Additionally, a number of staff and faculty across campus have been trained as Liaisons, serving as a resource to members of the College community. These Liaisons participate in annual training and are knowledgeable about College policies, procedures, resources and reporting obligations.

A knowingly and intentionally false or frivolous complaint, determined by the College to have been made in bad faith and dishonesty in the context of an investigation, is a serious offense. A finding that the College policies have not been violated is not, in and of itself, an indication that a complaint is false or unfounded. The College reserves the right to impose appropriate disciplinary action to students and employees who knowingly and intentionally file a false or frivolous complaint, or who participate in bad faith in the investigation of a complaint filed pursuant to College policies by knowingly and intentionally provide false and misleading information in the context of the investigation.

V. Confidentiality and Employee Reporting Obligations

A number of different resources and reporting options are available to those who have experienced sex or gender-based discrimination or harassment, including sexual violence. It is important to understand, however, that these resources offer varying degrees of confidentiality and reporting obligations, as outlined below.

Employee Reporting Responsibilities. All College employees (faculty and staff) must promptly notify a Title IX Coordinator about possible sexual or gender-based harassment, with limited exceptions. On-campus resources who can maintain confidentiality, and are therefore not required to report discrimination or harassment to a Title IX Coordinator, are those employed at the Counseling Center and Health Services.

Adherence to this reporting obligation ensures that the College can connect affected individuals with appropriate resources and services; track incidents and identify patterns; and, where appropriate, take steps to protect the College community.

All actions taken to investigate and resolve complaints shall be conducted with as much privacy and discretion as possible without compromising the thoroughness and fairness of the investigation. All persons, including support persons, involved are to treat the situation with respect and as confidentially as possible. To conduct a thorough investigation, the Investigator(s) and/or Title IX Coordinator may discuss the complaint with witnesses and those persons involved in or affected by the complaint, and those persons necessary to assist in the investigation or to implement appropriate remedial action.

Support Person. In cases of reporting instances of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking in accordance with the Clery Act, both the Complainant and Respondent may be permitted to have a support person accompany them to any meeting related to the complaint. The role of a support person is to accompany an employee with the purpose of providing support to the employee during the meeting. A support person may not address or question the investigator or answer for the Complainant or Respondent. A support person cannot be a witness or otherwise involved in the investigation or resolution. If the complainant or Respondent is a union member and requests a union representative, this provision shall not apply.

Complainant Requests Not to Investigate. A reporting party may request that the College not investigate or pursue resolution of a report or may request that their name not be disclosed. This can limit the College's ability to respond fully to the reported misconduct and pursue disciplinary action against the Respondent. Such requests should be made to a Title IX Coordinator and will be balanced with the College's responsibility and legal obligation to provide a safe and non-discriminatory environment for all members of the College community.

The College will respect the Complainant's right not to participate in an investigation, but may continue an investigation in order to meet its responsibility and legal obligation to provide a safe and non-discriminatory environment for all members of the Curry community. In such cases, the College will consult with the Complainant and keep the Complainant informed about the chosen course of action. The College may determine that it must investigate and pursue resolution of a report. An individual who initially requests anonymity or who requests that the College not investigate or pursue resolution may later request that the College investigate and pursue resolution.

Clery Act Reporting. In accordance with the Clery Act and the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), statistical information regarding certain offenses will be included in the College's annual safety and security report in a manner that does not include any personally identifiable information. In addition, College administrators will issue timely warnings for incidents reported that pose a serious and ongoing threat to the safety of the campus community.

VI. Accessing Resources

A. Confidential Resources

If a student wants to speak with a confidential resource, trained staff are available on and off-campus. Help and support is available to students who want to talk in detail about an incident, but are not sure if they are ready or interested in reporting to the College or law enforcement.

B. Amnesty

The College encourages reporting of sexual misconduct and seeks to remove any barriers to reporting. The College recognizes that a reporting party who has been drinking or using drugs at the time of an incident may be hesitant to make a report because of potential disciplinary consequences. Accordingly, students who report sexual misconduct, either as a Complainant or a third party witness, will not be subject to disciplinary action for being under the influence of alcohol or other drugs at the time of the alleged incident of sexual misconduct, so long as their actions did not place the health or safety of another person at risk. The College may, however, initiate an educational discussion or pursue other educational remedies regarding alcohol or other drugs.

C. Remedial, Protective and Interim Measures

When the College receives a report of a violation of this policy, reasonable and appropriate remedial, protective, and interim measures may be put in place, by the appropriate College official(s). These measures may be both remedial (designed to address a Complainant's safety and well-being and continued access to educational opportunities) or protective (designed to reduce the risk of harm to an individual or community). These measures, which may be temporary or permanent, may be imposed even when not specifically requested by a Complainant or Respondent at the discretion of the College, as appropriate. They include, but are not limited to: no contact orders; access to campus escort; changes to student housing, dining, or work circumstances; counseling and medical services; victim advocacy; legal assistance; academic support; transportation accommodations; assistance maintaining eligibility for student visa or financial aid; immigration assistance; interim suspension; and administrative leave (with or without pay).

VII. Applicable Procedures under this Policy

The Office of Human Resources will address all alleged violations of this policy that are brought against an employee, a visitor to an employee, or a vendor. The applicable procedures can be found in the Employee Handbook.

If the alleged violation is brought against a student of the College or a visitor to a student, it will be addressed by the Office of Student Conduct. The applicable procedures can be found here in the Student Handbook.

VIII. Academic Freedom

Nothing contained in this policy shall be construed to limit the legitimate and reasonable academic responsibilities and academic freedoms of the College's professional educators. Conduct believed to be offensive, on its own, is not sufficient to constitute a violation of this policy. The conduct must be sufficiently serious to interfere with an individual's ability to participate in employment or an educational program and activities from both a subjective and objective perspective.

IX. Prevention and Awareness Programs

In line with the College's commitment to the prevention of prohibited conduct, Curry College provides a variety of ongoing education and awareness programs. New students and employees receive prevention programming when joining the College community and returning students and current employees receive ongoing training and related education.

XII. Violations of Massachusetts State Law

Some of the conduct prohibited by this policy may also constitute violations of the law. The following are definitions compiled from the Massachusetts General Laws applicable to certain relevant offenses.

Dating and Domestic Violence

Massachusetts law has no statutory definition of “dating violence” or “domestic violence,” but there is a related crime of “domestic abuse” defined as: the occurrence of one or more of the following acts between family or household members: attempting to cause or causing physical harm, placing another in fear of imminent serious physical harm; and causing another to engage involuntarily in sexual relations by force, threat, or duress. Under this law, family or household members include people who are or were married, residing in the same household, related by blood or marriage, have a child together, or have a substantive dating or engagement relationship. See M.G.L. c. 209A, § 1.

Sexual Assault

There is no crime called “sexual assault” in Massachusetts; however, there are related crimes that constitute sexual offenses:

- “Rape,” which is defined as the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim. Under state law, rape occurs when the offender has “sexual intercourse or unnatural sexual intercourse with a person and compels such person to submit by force and against his/her will, or compels such person to submit by threat of bodily injury.” See M.G.L. c. 265, § 22.
- A sexual assault that does not meet the legal definition of rape may constitute “indecent assault and battery,” which occurs when the offender, without the victim’s consent, intentionally has physical contact of a sexual nature with the victim. See M.G.L. c. 265, § 13H.

- “Statutory rape,” which is defined as non-forcible sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent. In Massachusetts the statutory age of consent is 16 years of age.

See M.G.L., c. 265, §23.

Stalking

Under Massachusetts law, M.G.L., c. 265, §43, an individual engages in stalking if she/he: 1) willfully and maliciously engages in a knowing pattern of conduct or series of acts over a period of time directed at a specific person which seriously alarms or annoys that person and would cause a reasonable person to suffer substantial emotional distress; and 2) makes a threat with the intent to place the person in imminent fear of death or bodily injury.

Consent

Massachusetts does not have a specific definition for consent in this context. Instead, Massachusetts has several laws that define the age of consent and the additional penalties that attach if a person is under the age of 16 or 14. In Massachusetts, it is illegal to have sex under any circumstances with someone who is incapable of giving consent due to incapacity or impairment; incapacity or impairment may be caused by intoxication or drugs, or because a victim is underage, mentally impaired, unconscious, or asleep.
