

Week of September 20th

Phone call to student if they have not responded to your outreach about scheduling a meeting.

OR

Second meeting – in person

How is your student doing?

How things are going.....

If resident,

how was move in, how are they adjusting to having roommate, did they attend their 1st floor meeting/know their RA (RA is a good resource for them)

If commuter,

how is their commute, do they have online courses that they have found they need to be on campus for as the course after or before is F2F, if so where do they go on campus to zoom into the online course?

How was their 1st week of classes? Any questions about class location or how to read their schedule?

How are they navigating campus? Any offices needed they are having a hard time finding?

How are they doing with the potential lack of structure? How are they keeping themselves organized and on time for classes and with homework?

Tutoring services are now available through the Advising and Academic Success department in the Learning Commons, Suite 103. Students can email Amanda Tse, the Coordinator of Advising and Academic Success at atse@curry.edu or tutoring@curry.edu for further tutoring information and services provided, such as time management, study skills, test taking strategies, etc.

Are they feeling connected?

Have they attended any programs?

Are they thinking of joining any clubs/organizations?

Are they looking to get a job?

If looking for a job on campus they can use Handshake to apply. if they need help they can reach out to the Center for Global & Career Services for assistance

Have they made any connections in the Residence Hall or in class?

Are they going to the Dining hall, who do they usually go with?

They can check out Presence <http://curry.presence.io/events> for a list of in-person and virtual events!

What questions do they have?

--you might not be able to answer all of them, but you can pass their questions along and get back to them once you have a response.
